SECTIONAL BOOKCASES

What we told you last week as regards the furnishing of your bedroom will apply with equal force to other rooms of the house.

We are showing in our windows for a few days as our second creation in furnished rooms, a library. Here you will see the many and diversified ways of using the Sectional Bookcases. They are really a boon to the housewife who has but little space in which to satisfy the needs of the growing library. One section—a base and a top—may be all you have books to fill at the start, yet it is just as complete in itself as a dozen sections would be. One thing you will always be sure of, and that is that you can add a section at a time, as the wants of your library demand. We are handling the three most reliable and best known makes—the "Gunn," the "Globe-Wernicke" and the "Danner." Let us figure with you. The prices are guaranteed.

The Daylight Store*For Holiday Trade.*Could Be Worn at a Thanksgiving Dinner.

If we have ever had neat, new, nobby Waists—kinds that should sell, and sell at sight—this order that has just arrived is certainly the lot. They are not like last season's or this season's Waists, they are like next season's Waists.

LADIES' WAISTS.

These Waists are made of thin materials, yet very fine and the lace and embroideries used in their making are of the best, being very fine and dainty. They are for select trade for those that want quality and not too much show.

These Waists come in several designs with lace and embroidery trimming at $1.19.

These Waists with fine lace insertion yokes at $1.98.

These Waists with hand embroidered insertion at yokes at $2.50.

These Waists of silk checked muslin with Irish Point lace yokes at $3.98.

CAMBRIC FLOUNCINGS.

One year ago we had what, at that time, we considered real bargains in 14, 16 and 18-inch Cambric Embroidered Flouncings, goods that sold at 50 and 60c. These were then sold as bargains at 39c and lasted but a few days.

We now have another lot of the same goods and while the lot is smaller the quality is the same and they are priced the same, 39c per yard. Used for children's dresses, corset covers and ladies' white skirts.

Considering that there is a sharp advance on all kinds of embroideries these values are so much the more desirable than last season.

LADIES' SILK WAISTS.

These Silk Waists are of the new designs bought by us only two weeks ago while we were in New York. At that time they were in the piece, styles only being shown; now they are on our counters as the newest and latest that can be had.

These Silk Waists come in Navy, White and Black, with narrow tucks on front and back, of very best Taffeta, at $5.00 each.

These Silk Waists came in Gray, Navy and Brown Plaids, with narrow tucks closed with wide box pleat set with large silk button, for $5.75.

A Black Taffeta Waist with hand embroidered yoke, for $5.75, a beauty.

If you are making your own Waists use a New Idea 10c Pattern. It Saves Material and Price.
